What the strategy looks like?

Verbal feedback (Recording it has happened)

Often it is difficult to evidence when verbal feedback has happened in a lesson. Where verbal feedback has been given in the lesson, this may be acknowledged using the feedback stamp. In good examples students will have recorded the feedback and in outstanding examples it should be clear that students have acted upon the advice.

The example on the left was verbal feedback given for a homework piece. All students had made a similar error, rather than writing this correction on all students work, this formed the starter for the next lesson. Students recorded the feedback next to the stamp.
